

Mad Mill Stories: Discovery at the Mill

It's time to get creative! Fill in the word boxes below, then turn over to fit your words into the story. What madness will follow? That's up to you!

6 nouns:

Word Tips

Adjective: Describes something

Noun: Refers to a thing

Verb: An action

Adverb: Describes how a verb happens

7 past tense verbs:

2 greetings:

1 adverb:

4 adjectives:

1 place of work:

NO PEEKING AT THE STORY!

Discovery at the Mill

Create your own story by filling in the missing words using your list.

It was a/an _____ night. Simeon had just finished the [adjective]

night shift at the _____. The _____ were all [noun - a place of work] [plural noun]

turned off and it was time to go home. As he _____ [verb - past tense]

down the stairs, he heard a/an _____ noise. He [adjective]

_____. What could it be? He _____ again. It [verb - past tense] [verb]

was coming from behind the _____. He turned and [noun]

crept back _____. He heard the noise again but he [adverb]

could not see anything. Suddenly, the clouds _____ and [verb - past tense]

the moon _____ through the window. It was a [verb - past tense]

_____! ' _____ ' said Simeon. ' _____ ', [noun] [greeting] [greeting]

said the _____. It looked _____ and [noun] [adjective]

_____. 'Well, I can't leave it here', _____ [adjective] [verb - past tense]

Simeon. So he _____ and took it home. He shared his [verb - past tense]

_____ with it, then they both fell asleep together in front [noun]

of the _____.
[noun]